

Should you be a National Board Certified Teacher?

NATIONAL BOARD
for Professional Teaching Standards

ORANGE COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION Educational Services
invites you to attend

NATIONAL BOARD CERTIFICATION FOR TEACHERS INFORMATIONAL MEETING

APRIL 30TH 4:30-6:00 PM
OCDE, 200 Kalmus Drive
Costa Mesa, CA 92626
Bldg. A, Room A10/11/12

Please share this information with your friends and colleagues.

For more information please contact:
Susan Carle' NBCT Coordinator
(714) 966-4159 email:ocnbct@ocde.us

To Register: <http://ocde.k12oms.org/1376-164731>

This is a free event

Target Audience:
Interested Teachers and Counselors
LCAP Priority #4
OCDE Priority #2

NBCT is a voluntary, advanced certification process for teachers that requires candidates to provide content specific, standards-based evidence of accomplished practice. Candidates are assessed across four components, each of which is designed to evaluate a different aspect of a teacher's practice.

Every student deserves to be taught by an accomplished teacher!